At the sentencing hearing, the Court indicated that it was willing to allow appeal of certain issues raised at that hearing. The term for filing a notice of appeal arguably expires this Friday, July 27, 2007. The Court wishes to allow counsel and the Court sufficient time to address remaining issues. Therefore, for good cause satisfactory to the Court, and pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 4(b)(4), the Court will extend the period for filing a notice of appeal from the final judgment in this matter for thirty days from July 27, 2007.
